

I write to express my strong concern over Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. I understand that Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. As a large company that owns many stations nationwide, Sinclair has too much control of the airwaves. Their act of forcing local stations to run the anti-Kerry documentary is not consistent with a sense of democracy in our country.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. I ask that you contact Sinclair to tell them to give local stations the decision-making power on whether to air the documentary. Thank you.
